

Privacy Policy

Privacy & Safety

We value our customer(s) and want to keep in touch with you in various ways. We gather information from you via our website, through social media, and we collect information through transactions e.g purchases & returns.

Thank you for visiting www.thesovereigntyofgod.org (the “Website”). This privacy and security policy (the “Policy”) explains the information we collect about you on the Website, how we use the information, some of the security steps taken to protect the information, and the choices you have to review, revise and/or restrict our usage of this information. This Policy is part of the Terms & Conditions of Use that govern the Website and is binding on all Website users. If you have any objections to this Privacy Policy, you should immediately leave this website.

What Information We Collect & How We Use It

The Sovereignty of God collects information from our customers for a variety of reasons, including to improve our brand, provide incredible customer service, enhance your shopping experience and to communicate updates regarding our products and services.

We collect information such as name, telephone number, email, postal address and payment information (“Personal Information”) that you provide when you register an account on our website, place an order, write product reviews, post customer-generated photographs and content and other user-generated content.

We may use this information collected online to process and fulfill your order. We also collect email addresses in order to send you necessary order-related messages such as order confirmation and shipment confirmation notices.

In addition, we monitor site usage and traffic patterns to improve our web site design and the products we offer.

Your data will not be transferred to any 3rd party.

Disclosure of Information

We will disclose information as we determine to be required by law. We do not share credit card or other payment information with third parties except for the purposes of processing payment for products and services you’ve ordered and as required by law. In addition, we may disclose credit card and other information we collect from you with an outside company with which we have contracted for their services to protect against fraud and the unauthorized use of credit.

Policy Changes & Updates

The Sovereignty of God may frequently update this Policy including for new, unanticipated uses not previously disclosed. Any changes made will be posted here. By visiting and continuing to use the Website you agree to accept any changes made to this Policy. Feel free to contact us with any questions about our Policy.